F. E. C. A. A. MAY GIVE UP RACES.

New Chairman of the A. A. A. Trying to Get
Control of the Ormond-Daytona Beach Racing Events.

There is some talk of turning the Ormond-Daytona races over to the American Automobile Association, and J. De M. Thompson, the new chairman of the A. A. A., will endeavor to bring the races under direct control of that association.

The matter will be brought up at some future meeting of the Florida East Coast Automobile Association and the advisability of turning the races over will be discussed.

The New York Evening Sun, of March 9th, has the following:

Robert Lee Morrell, whose work as chairman of the racing board of the American Automobile Association during the past year gained the approval of all automobilists, was yesterday displaced by the election of Jefferson de Mont Thompson, a lawyer, of this city. Mr. Morrell flatly declined to serve again, although his re-election was assured had he desired to retain the office.

As chairman of the racing board, Mr. Thompson will also be chairman of the Vanderbilt Cup commission and will have the task of arranging details of the great contest next fall. He is not widely known but has been interested in the sport for several years, having witnessed nearly every contest for the Bennett Cup in Europe. His friends say that he will make a vigorous and efficient officer and will bring with him a wide knowledge of the practical side of conducting automobile races.

The new chairman favors a small body of active automobilists as members of the racing board and may decline in favor of only five members who can be depended upon to think and act quickly in emergencies. Mr. Thompson is opposed to track racing, but favors competition on beaches, and will try to bring the Ormond-Daytona carnival under direct control of the A. A. A. He favors the use of the Nassau course for the next Vanderbilt Cup race, but thinks there should be a change in the course to eliminate the dangerous curves near the Guinea Woods.

Entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa Paine, at their comfortable home on Ridgewood avenue, entertained in honor of a party of Minnesota people, among them being Mr. and Mrs. John W. Thomas and their two daughters, Misses Nellie and Alberta, also Mrs. J. M. Paine and Miss Ellen Paine, of Boston. The luncheon was quite elaborate and greatly enjoyed. The room was beautifully decorated with tropical plants.

To Make a Park.

J. N. Gamble, of Cincinnati, of Ivory Soap fame, who owns a handsome residence and piece of land at Silver Beach near the end of the South Bridge, has closed a contract with John C. Butler, of Daytona Beach, to clear the five-acre tract of land in front of his home on the river front, and beautify the property to such an extent that will make it a handsome park. After the land is cleared, many improvements in the way of cement walks, etc., will be made.

EX-MAYOR SMITH LEAVES SOON.

Well Depart Wednesday for Los Angeles, Cal., Where He Expects To Locate Permanently.

The friends of Hon. Charles L. Smith will regret to learn that he will leave the city next Wednesday for Los Angeles, Cal., where he expects to permanently locate.

Mr. Smith has long been a resident of Daytona, and he and his family for many years have been identified with the best interests of the city.

In recent years he has figured more or less in politics. He has served the city as Mayor, also the county as Representative in the Legislature.

Just what business Mr. Smith will pursue in California he has not decided upon, and for a while, at least, he will look into the channels of business, and see what will be the best for him to embark in.

A liberal reward will be paid at this office for the return of diamond ring stolen from peninsular home Wednesday night, March 10th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Battendorf, of Cleveland, Ohio, arrived at the New Seaside Inn on Thursday, where they expect to spend some time.

MANY ARRIVALS FROM SOUTH.

Largest Crowd of the Season Arrives Thursday Afternoon—Hotels Are Still Well Filled.

Before and after the departure of the two trains from the South Thursday, the Florida East Coast Railway station presented somewhat of a congested scene. The number of departures were unusually heavy, and there were seventy-five pieces of baggage that were northbound. The incoming passengers were the greatest in number known this season, and it is thought that nearly 150 people came up from the lower East Coast resorts.

Would Certainly Pay.

R. T. Coleman, who is a guest of The Clarendon, thinks that an electric road from the beach to the depot would be a paying investment. Mr. Coleman, who hails from Louisville, Ky., arrived a day or two ago from Rockledge, accompanied by his wife. He says that Rockledge is practically deserted, and he was greatly surprised to see so much activity in Daytona and at the beach.

Col. C. M. Bingham, Jr., has returned from a business trip to Jacksonville.

J. L. PATILLO WILL RUN.

Well Known Port Orange Man Aspires to the Position of County Superintendent of Schools.

J. L. Patillo will be a candidate for the position of county superintendent before the coming Democratic Primaries. Such was the information the gentleman imparted to a representative of this paper.

Mr. Patillo was a candidate before the primary of 1904 but was defeated by Bert Fish. Now that Mr. Fish has tendered his resignation, Mr. Patillo will again try for the plum.

Mr. Patillo is a gentleman well known throughout the county and should he secure the nomination, his friends predict for him a capable and progressive administration of the school interests of the county.

Fine Lot Sold.

L. O. Smith, president of the Halifax River and Bridge Company, has purchased the desirable building lot on Beach street, next to the Aultman lot, at the corner of Orange avenue, from Attorney Bert Fish. The consideration was in the vicinity of $1,000. J. W. Wilkinson negotiated the deal.

EDUCATIONAL DAY ENJOYED.

Palmetto Club Had Interesting Program
Thursday Afternoon.—Music and Readings Especially Fine.

Thursday's meeting of the Palmetto Club was in charge of the Educational Department and was most enjoyable. There was an exhibition of sketches in water-color and pencil by the children of Miss Northrop's grade in the public school. Also some very creditable specimens of radio work.

The program was as follows:

1. Orchestra—Gloria from Farnes Mass.
2. a Nocturn—Chopin.
3. Violin Solo—Mrs. Miller.
4. Romance by Ambrogio.
5. Polonaise—Hans Litt.

1. Solo—Mrs. Wright.
2. a Serenade—Neidlinger.
3. "Deep in a Rose's Glowing Heart."
4. Reading—"How Can the School and Home Co-operate More Effectively in the Ethical Training of the Child," by Mrs. W.O. Volante.—Read by Mrs. Esch.
5. Solos—Major Downing.
6. a Sonata—DeMeriot.
7. Killarney and Mockingbird.

The readings were most enjoyable, and the music was especially fine. Major Downing, as usual, charmed all with his master touch.

Unable To Play.

Owing to the rush of business, the members of the Daytona baseball team have come to the conclusion that they will be unable to accept the challenge of the Daytona High School team for a game of baseball this afternoon. They expect to be able to play a series of games in April.

The Next Attraction.

The Haywood-Sloan Company, a comedy and vaudeville show, will make its appearance at the Opera House on the 23rd inst. This company comes highly recommended, and Manager Osborn is quite pleased to book the attraction. The Manager is in correspondence with one or two other companies and he hopes before long to close dates.

A Poem for Today

On the Death of Joseph Rodman Drake

By Fitz-Greene Halleck

GREEN be the turf above thee,
Friend of my better days!
None knew thee but to love
thee,
Nor named thee but to praise.

Tears fell when thou wert dying
From eyes unused to weep.
How long, where thou art lying,
Will tears the cold turf steep.

When hearts, whose truth was proven,
Like thine are laid in earth,
There should a wreath be woven
To tell the world their worth.

And I, who woke each morn
To clasp thy hand in mine,
Who shared thy joy and sorrow,
Whose wail and woe were thine,
Whose wail and woe were thine,

It should be mine to braid it
Around thy faded brow,
But I've in vain essayed it
And feel I cannot now.

While memory bids me weep thee
Nor thoughts nor words are free,
The grief is fixed too deeply
That mourns a man like thee.

A Hymn for Today

THE KING OF LOVE

By Sir Henry Williams Baker

THE King of Love my shepherd is,
Whose goodness faileth never,
I nothing lack if I am his,
And he is mine forever.

Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul he leadeth,
And where the verdant pastures grow
With food and food that feedeth.

Perverse and foolish, and I strayed,
But set in love he caught me,
And on his shoulders
And home he brought me.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill,
With thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort will,
Thy cross before to guide me.

Thou spreadst a table in my sight;
Thy unction grace bestoweth,
And oh, what transport of delight
From thy pure chalice floweth!

And so through all the length of days
Thy goodness faileth never,
Good Shepherd, may I sing thy praise
Within thy house forever.
